

LENHART'S CASE
IS CONTINUED
UNTIL AUGUST

Illness Of An Important Witness Is The Reason Given.

MUST RENEW HIS BAIL
Judge Requires Brownsville Man To Get
Bond.

On motion of R. W. Irwin, counsel for the defendant, the court yesterday granted a continuance in the W. L. Lenhart case to the August term, on account of the illness of a material witness. The defendant was ordered to renew his bail. The case was set for trial next Monday.

Lenhart was indicted at the February term of court on a charge of conspiracy with O. F. Piper to cheat and defraud the People's bank of California. There are 199 counts in the indictment. At the February term of court a severance was granted and Piper entered a plea of guilty. Lenhart's case was continued to the May term.

Lephart, through his attorneys, Irwin, Wiley and Morgan, made application to the court on April 30 for an order permitting an expert to examine the books, papers, letters and records of the Peoples Bank, in order that he may properly prepare a defense. A rule was granted on the district attorney, and the Peoples Bank, to show cause why the rule should not be granted.

Answers were filed to the rule, and Judge McIlvaine handed down an opinion discharging the rule and refusing the order asked for.

Not Deterrent.

Frank Rogers, ~~man~~ was convicted of violating the mining laws and sentenced to pay a fine of $1 and the costs at Washington last Tuesday. The defendant while employed in a coal mine had gone past ~~the danger~~ signal at a time contrary to law. That sentence will not act as a deterrent to others. Here was a man who endangered the lives of every fellow-workman in the same mine, a hundred or two perhaps, yet he is fined a paltry $1 and costs for his act.

It is all very well to deplore the loss of life often that loss has occurred, but nothing will lessen it save severe punishment for those who needlessly endanger a human life. That sentence was a mistaken case of clemency.

Deeds Left For Record. May 6, 1908--William McMahan et ux., Charleroi, to W. D. Fries, same place, 16 lots in Charleroi; consideration, $1,000.

May 6, 1908--W. D. Fries to Blanche McMahan, Charleroi, 16 lots in Charleroi; consideration $1,000.

John Kovasz, of Coal Bluff was arrested at that place yesterday by Constable Nelson Luker, on a serious charge preferred by Julia Lepack, also of Coal Bluff.

The report of births in Connellsville borough is 25 compared to 3 deaths; Connellsville township, 3 births to 5 deaths; and Bullskin township, 3 births to 4 deaths. Bullskin broke away from the ranks by reporting one death in excess of births.

The Plain Facts

In an article summing up the 'enemies of President Roosevelt' the Philadelphia North American makes a characteristic mis-statement of facts when it says that Senator Penrose became an enemy of the President when the latter interfered in the anthracite strike in 1902.

Imprimis, Senator Penrose is not an enemy of President Roosevelt and the latter has shown many of the most convincing proofs that he regards the Senator as a friend. Taking the statements of the North American at their face value, leaves no other presumption that the President cannot distinguish a warm friend from an enemy, or if he can, he is hypocrite enough and lacks the courage to say so, an impossible presumption.

The truth of history is and the writer hereof knows the precise facts, for he was in a position to learn them, and can give the day, the date the book and the page to corroborate about what follows.

After that remarkable spectacle at the Executive Mansion during which John Markle had hectoring and threatened President Roosevelt with his displeasure, three men, Senators Quay and Penrose, of Pennsylvania, and Platt, of New York, each of whom were lending every energy to secure a settlement of the strike, met the men representing the financial interests of the coal companies, and in the most informal and forcible language convinced the financiers that Pennsylvania was not a satrapy of the anthracite coal operators, and that unless they agreed to submit the matter to immediate arbitration, means would be instantly employed to make that matter plain, even to the dullest of God's creatures.

So, instead of Senator Penrose being angered at President Roosevelt's interference, he was one of the men largely responsible for that interference and the coal miners themselves are well aware of that fact and the votes of the nine anthracite counties show that they know it.

Why Not?

James Perkins, who was arrested and held for court on the charge of criminal negligence in leaving a mine door open causing an explosion of gas, through which four men lost their lives, was discharged by the Grand Jury.

Doubtless the juryman asked themselves the highly pertinent question, why did not the company hire a trapper boy to guard such an important door, and it is more than probable a court would ask a similar one in a suit for damages growing out of that explosion.

SCABS OR SNEAKS "BREADLINE" BUMS

Nearly 100 additional foreigners, many of who were regular occupants of places in the "bread line," left today over the Pennsylvania Lines to take places in the Butler county and West Virginia coal fields. Just whether they are going to take the places of union miners who struck is not clear.

Some say that is exactly the purpose for which the foreigners are being secured here. Others say not,
but that the men are to take laboring jobs about the mines.

Some of the prisoners before Mayor Lusk yesterday, who were caught in the Sunday afternoon raid by the police upon the Mahoning avenue speak-easy where 53 men were captured, were recognized as occupants also of places in the recent "bread line."

Just how men who were out of work and so reduced financially that they were forced to be fed by public charity would have the cash to buy booze in a speak-easy is not clear.
It leads to the belief that many of the "bread line" men were sham-ming concerning their poverty stricken condition, in order to be fed by others, while they saved their own money for booze.

NORTH CHARLEROI DADS HAVE SPECIAL SESSION

The North Charleroi council met in special session at City hall last night and was called to order by president Watson. The members present were
Watson, E. Crabb, C. Crabb, Gaskill,
Jacobs and Shaffer.

A resolution to borrow $570 from the First National bank of Charleroi was passed by council.

A resolution to repeal that portion of an ordinance providing for 4 foot sidewalks, was carried and the border clerk was instructed to draft a new ordinance regulating width of sidewalks, in accordance with the provisions of a resolution passed at last regular meeting of council.

On motion council adjourned to meet the first Monday in June.

PRETTY ROMANCE OF LOCK 4 COUPLE

North Charleroi was treated to two surprises last week which later on developed into two quies but unlooked for weddings. The contracting parties were George Jacobs and Miss Irene Sprankle, William Sharpneck and Miss Flora E. Gruber, the quartet quietly slipping to Youngstown, Ohio, where the knots were tied. Mr. and Mrs. Jacobs left for Puxsawney where Mr. Jacobs is employed as manager of a department in one of the large parks at that place.

Mr. and Mrs. Sharpneck have gone to housekeeping with the former's mother at Lock View.

Of the latter happy union there is said to be quite a romance connected and upon inquiry the Mail was furnished the particulars in the case by Mr. Sharpneck himself who is an employee of the U. S. Government on the locks at North Charleroi. While engaged at his duties on Feb. 15, 1906, he picked up a bottle floating in the river which contained a nicely written note. Signed in a delicate hand Miss Flora E. Gruber, Greensboro, Pa., Feb.
14, 1906, finder please write. The river was at a high stage and the inmissive was not long in finding its way down to Lock No. 4 where it was found by Mr. Sharpneck, who was then and there tempted to write to the fair sender. He did so and an answer came at once. Letters and photos were exchanged. A love match by Dan Cupid. Sequel, the happy wedding which it is a pleasure to note. All the contracting parties are well known and have a host of friends in Charleroi and vicinity who wish them many happy years of married life.

THE SUMMER VACATION GUIDE

The summer vacation is the bright spot in the dull routine of the year's work. It breaks the monotony of the daily round, and cheers and invigorates for the strenuous life ahead.

America abounds with delightful summer resorts in valley, on mountain, and beside the sea. The Atlantic coast line from Labrador to Cape Hatteras contains the greatest number of resorts devoted entirely to the pursuit of pleasure and health in the world.

One may purchase from Pennsylvania Railroad Ticket Agents, excursion tickets to over eight hundred of these resorts, covering all the desirable places, from the rock bound bays of Newfoundland to the gentle, sandy slopes of the Virginia beaches; from the White Mountains of New Hampshire to the Cumberland Mountains of Tennessee; in the wilds of Canada, along the shores of the St. Lawrence and the Great Lakes.

The famous seacoast resorts of New Jersey—Atlantic City, Cape May, Wildwood, Ocean City, Sea Isle
City, Asbury Park, Long Branch, Spring Lake, Seaside Park, Beach Haven and others, so well known that description is superfluous—are among the most popular and the most easily accessible resorts in the country.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Summer Excursion Book, to be obtained of Ticket Agents at ten cents a copy or of the General Passenger Agent, Philadelphia, by mail postpaid for 25 cents, describes them all and gives the rates and stop-over privileges allowed on tickets.

MONESSEN MEN

WERE ARRESTED

Four Monessen men were arrested last evening at 7:30 on McKean avenue for fast driving. They were trying out fast horses between Sixth and Seventh streets. The arrests were made by Officers McEldowny and Higgins. A hearing will be given the men tonight. Their names were Robert Clayton, R. L. Carter, Sanderson Smith and W. J. Race, all well known men.

The Merry Widow has been relegated to the side aisles in one Franklin,

You Can Easily Operate

This Typewriter Yourself

Don't worry your correspondent.
Don't write him anything by hand that takes him time to make out—let him leave him in doubt—that he can't easily read.
And don't fill out legal papers or card menus—or make out accounts or hotel menus in your own handwriting.
It looks bad, reflects on your standing, makes people think you can't afford a stenographer, and is sometimes ambiguous.
You can write out your letters—make out an abstract bill in an insurance policy—enter your card menus—make out your accounts—or a hotel menu—or do any kind of writing you need, on any kind, size or thickness of paper, and space any way you want on

The OLIVER

Typewriter

You can write any of these things if you do not happen to have a stenographer.
For you can easily learn, with a little practice, to write just as rapidly, and as perfectly, as an expert operator on the OLIVER. Because the OLIVER is the simplified typewriter. And you can see every word you write. About 80 per cent. more durable than any other typewriter, because it has about 30 per cent. less wearing points than most other typewriters.
So per cent. easier to write with than these other complicated, intricate machines that require "humming"—technical knowledge—

Making More Than

a Living

Nearly every man who works steadily makes more than a living. During these slow times the men who have saved something appreciate what it is to have something laid away for a rainy day. A few cents a day soon counts up, and when savings are placed in a bank at a tidy interest the sum soon grows to proportions that make it a safeguard against want when work is not plentiful. Figure up how much more than a living you are making now, and place the difference in this bank.

In an article summing up the "enemies of President Roosevelt" the

strike in 1902.

presumption.

After that remarkable spectacle at

were bending every energy to secure a

creatures.

that they know it.

jurymen asked them selves the highly pertinent question:

court would set a similar one in a suit

plosion.

SCABS OR SNEAKS

"BREADLINE" BUMS

Nearly 100 additional foreigners,

not clear.

ing secured here. Others say not,

jobs about the mines.

Some of the witnesses before Monahan yesterday, who were caught in

ers where 55 men were captured, were recognized as occupants also of

booze in a speak-easy is not clear.

ming concerning their poverty stricken condition, in order to be fed by

money for booze.

NORTH CHARLEROI DADS

HAVE SPECIAL SESSION

Watson, E. Crabb, C. Crabb, Gaskill,

Jacobs and Shaffer.

sidewalks, was carried and the boro clerk was instructed to draft a new

meet the first Monday in June.

PRETTY ROMANCE

OF LOCK 4 COUPLE

veloped into two quiet but unlooked

Sprinkle, William Sharpneck and

where the knots were tied. Mr. and

Mrs. Jacobs left for Foxsutauney

large parks at that place.

mother at Lock View.

gaged at his duties on Feb. 15, 1906,

river was at a high stage and the

missive was not long in finding its

ried life.

strenuous life ahead.

pursuit of pleasure and health in the world.

the rock bound bays of Newfoundland to the gentle,
